

Bill Harte's

mandolintab.net

Mandolin tablature for Bill Harte's tune, presented in four staves. The first staff shows a melody line with note heads and stems. The second staff shows the corresponding fingerings for the mandolin's neck, with numbers indicating which string to play and which fret to press. The third staff shows another melody line with note heads and stems. The fourth staff shows the corresponding fingerings for the mandolin's neck. The fifth staff shows another melody line with note heads and stems. The sixth staff shows the corresponding fingerings for the mandolin's neck. The tablature uses a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). Measures are separated by vertical bar lines. Fingerings are indicated by numbers above or below the strings. Measure numbers are placed above the first and second measures of each staff.
