

Hill 60

mandolintab.net

Mandolin tablature for the song "Hill 60". The music is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The tablature shows six lines representing the six strings of a mandolin, with note heads indicating pitch and stems indicating direction. Bar numbers are placed above the staff. Fingerings are indicated by numbers above or below the notes, and a '3' over a bracket indicates a three-fret move.

Mandolin tablature for "Hill 60". The music is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The tablature shows six lines representing the six strings of a mandolin, with note heads indicating pitch and stems indicating direction. Fingerings are indicated by numbers above or below the notes, and a '3' over a bracket indicates a three-fret move.

Mandolin tablature for "Hill 60". The music is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The tablature shows six lines representing the six strings of a mandolin, with note heads indicating pitch and stems indicating direction. Fingerings are indicated by numbers above or below the notes, and a '3' over a bracket indicates a three-fret move.

Mandolin tablature for "Hill 60". The music is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The tablature shows six lines representing the six strings of a mandolin, with note heads indicating pitch and stems indicating direction. Fingerings are indicated by numbers above or below the notes, and a '3' over a bracket indicates a three-fret move.

Mandolin tablature for "Hill 60". The music is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The tablature shows six lines representing the six strings of a mandolin, with note heads indicating pitch and stems indicating direction. Fingerings are indicated by numbers above or below the notes, and a '3' over a bracket indicates a three-fret move.

Mandolin tablature for "Hill 60". The music is in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The tablature shows six lines representing the six strings of a mandolin, with note heads indicating pitch and stems indicating direction. Fingerings are indicated by numbers above or below the notes, and a '3' over a bracket indicates a three-fret move.