The image displays a mandolin sheet for the song "She's In The Attic". It consists of six systems, each containing a standard musical staff and a corresponding mandolin tablature line. The music is written in the key of B-flat major (one flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The first system features a melodic line with eighth-note patterns and a tablature line with triplets and various fret numbers (0, 1, 3, 5). The second system continues the melody and includes a repeat sign at the end. The third system introduces a chromatic variation in the melody, indicated by sharp signs on the notes. The fourth system continues this chromatic variation. The fifth system features a different melodic pattern with a first fret emphasis. The sixth system concludes the piece with a final melodic phrase and a repeat sign.
